

Wednesday 20th January 2021

Good morning everyone.

Can you believe we are half way through the week already!

It was fantastic to see your Torah scrolls yesterday!

hairy
dairy air fair fairy pair

Maths (20 minutes)

Sing along with the 'Seven Days A Week' song:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=1PgTdgvrjjs>

Today we are learning about zero:

#MathsEveryoneCan

Can you draw some pictures to represent the numbers to 5
How would you represent 0?

An illustration of two brown horses standing in a green field behind a wooden fence. The horses are facing each other and appear to be eating grass. The field is enclosed by a simple wooden fence with vertical posts and horizontal rails.

You could even go on a walk and look to see where you can spot zero.
You might spot 0 cars on the road or 0 horses in the field.
How many 0s can you find?

White Rose Maths

Extension:

Hidden Bonds

Show the children 2 buckets.

Explain that you have 5 pebbles hidden inside the buckets.

Ask the children how many pebbles could be in each bucket.

Could this bucket have 0 pebbles?

Could this bucket have 4 pebbles? How do you know?

Literacy and Topic (15-20 minutes)

'Jack and the Beanstalk' and instructions:

Today you are learning about bossy words to use in your instruction writing. Bossy finger at the ready!...

Listen to this song: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=JR5RamySULY>
And talk about the bossy imperative verbs

Task:

Using your work from yesterday to help, write captions as a set of instructions telling someone how to plant a bean. Remember to be precise, use bossy (imperative) verbs and to number your instructions, starting with 1.

An example of this would be "1. get plant pot" and "2. put soil in it".

These are the bossy (imperative) verbs
